Phyllis Ann Eisenbraun was born October 12, 1953, in Wall, South Dakota, the daughter of Martin C. and Adella (Schwarting) Eisenbraun. She grew up in Wall, graduating from Wall High School in 1971.

Phyllis was united in marriage to Larry Kochersberger on April 24, 1971, in Wall. After their marriage they made their home in Philip, where she worked numerous jobs in the area. She then began working at Dakota Case and later Scotchman Industries, where she worked for the last 24 years.

Family was most important to Phyllis, and she also enjoyed working in the yard, puzzles, reading, and being home.

Survivors include her husband Larry of Philip; one son Alan Kochersberger of Philip; one daughter Amy Kittelson and her husband Scott of Murdo; four grandchildren Rachel, William “Willy” and Lane Kochersberger, and Kamri Kittelson; one great-grandson Camo; two brothers Martin Eisenbraun of Webster, and Roger Eisenbraun and his wife Valerie of Morrison, Colorado; two sisters Ida Neiffer of Custer, and Dorothy Jensen and her husband Dale of San Antonio, Texas; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her parents Martin C. and Adella (Schwarting) Eisenbraun; five brothers Bernard, LeRoy, Robert, Alan, and Leonard Eisenbraun; and two sisters Evelyn Fuerstenau and Mary Ballistreri.

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same;
Feed not your loneliness on empty days.
But fill each waking hour in useful days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die.
For I am waiting for you in the sky!
