Marvin Fred McDaniel was born August 2, 1958, in Philip, South Dakota, the son of Fred Q. and Beverly I. (McClure) McDaniel. He grew up in Philip, graduating from Philip High School in 1976.

While in high school, Marvin worked for Jack Hansen at his fur plant. After graduation, Marvin worked for Dorothy Brothers, where he worked on vehicles. Marvin then worked for Wendall Siefert's Electric before he attended Mitchell Vo-Tech, where he earned his electricians license. Marv first worked in Gillette, WY as a residential electrician, and in the late 80s started doing more commercial electrical wiring. He went to work for TIC, and moved to Casper, Wyoming in 1993. He became TIC's master electrician for the western division, and travelled extensively with his girlfriend, Laura Moore, who also worked for TIC. Later Marv went to work for P & H Mine Pro, where he did similar work but travelled to eastern states like Missouri, Illinois, and Minnesota. Another employee, Virgil Tatman, decided to start his own company and Marv followed him over to his company Hamm Equipment, Inc.

Marv continued to do a few jobs for Hamm Equipment until his illness, but was primarily focused the last few years on moving back to Grindstone to operate the small ranch that had been in the family since 1907 (when his great-grandfather George McClure homesteaded it).

Marvin has made his home in Casper for a number of years, but always looked forward to coffee at Rich Smith's, when he made it home to the ranch near Philip. Marvin was a hard worker, and able to fix anything that needed repairs. Marvin also became quite a gardener, and enjoyed canning his produce he raised. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Survivors include his mother Beverly McDaniel of Quinn, South Dakota; three sisters Kerry Wahlquist and her husband Peter of Las Vegas, Nevada, Kathy McDaniel of Rapid City, and Patricia Hauk and her husband Phillip of Piedmont; nephew Sean Wahlquist and niece Kersey Wahlquist both of Las Vegas; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Marvin was preceded in death by his father Fred McDaniel on April 6, 2005.

A True Fisherman

A true fisherman knows when and where the fish are biting.

*He rises up early in the morning,
Plying the water for that elusive catch,
Waiting in the stillness for a nibble
A slight twitch in the line,
Expertly he reels it in -*

*A good fisherman knows a keeper when he sees one,
he knows when to toss one back,
and when to head for home.*
