

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

- Alfred, Lord Tennyson

The background of the entire image is a close-up of the American flag, showing the stars and stripes. In the lower-left foreground, a bald eagle is visible, looking towards the right. The eagle's head is white with a yellow beak, and its feathers are brown and white.

In Loving Memory

Richard J. Kraima
1940-2020

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want...
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters...*

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over...*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever...
